

I would prefer the amateur radio service to continue in its role of promoting excellence. The idea of requiring a test of copying 12 wpm seems to me to support this role. I do not think "dumbing down" a good trend in any aspect of American life. So I do support the FISTS summition. Tnx and 73s de KJ4ZM Sam